

USACE Regional Sediment Management Program (RSM)

Managing sediments & projects through a systems based approach

Success = Partnerships

Federal, State, Local,
Academia, Others.....

Upper Texas Coast Regional Sediment Budget

Understanding the Region
Local actions which benefit the region

- Recognize sediments as regional resources
- Local actions within a region context
- Link & leverage across multiple projects, business lines, authorities
- Economically viable, environmentally sustainable solutions
- Support sustainable solutions for Navigation, Flood Risk Management, and Ecosystem Restoration
- Share information and data
- Communicate and collaboration – USACE, Stakeholders, Partners

Reduce
Ocean Disposal

Reduce Upland Disposal

Optimize
Placement and Use

Improve Storm &
Flood Protection

Channelization/
Land Use Impacts

Economical
Habitat Restoration

Linda Lillycrop
Program Manager
USACE RSM Program

Jackie Keiser
Director,
RSM Regional
Center of Expertise

Jeff McKee
HQ, Proponent
Navigation Business
Line Manager

Jeff Lillycrop
ERDC Technical Director
Civil Works and Navigation

Eddie Wiggins
ERDC Associate
Technical Director Navigation