James Purcell, Esq.

Assistant District Counsel
Office of Counsel
U.S. Army Corps of Engineers Galveston
District

James Purcell has served as an Assistant District Counsel in the Galveston District Office of Counsel since January 2017. Mr. Purcell is the primary Galveston District attorney assigned to the nationally-significant Addicks & Barker litigation. He also advises on a variety of other civil works, fiscal, and ethics issues.

Previously, Mr. Purcell served four years on active duty in the Army JAG Corps. As a Captain, Mr. Purcell held various roles, including Special Assistant U.S. Attorney and Trial Defense Attorney. Prior to active duty, Mr. Purcell worked briefly at King & Spalding's e-Discovery center in Atlanta, Georgia.

Mr. Purcell graduated magna cum laude from the University of Georgia School of Law. As a law student, Mr. Purcell was an Articles Editor for the Georgia Law Review and was inducted into the Order of the Coif. He received his Bachelor of Arts in History from Texas A&M University, where he was an ROTC Distinguished Military Student. He is a licensed attorney in Texas (active) and Georgia (inactive).
