

US Army Corps of Engineers®
Galveston District

BIOGRAPHY

---

Ryan Schwartzengraber
Emergency Management Specialist
U.S. Army Corps of Engineers Galveston District

Ryan Schwartzengraber is an Emergency Management Specialist for the Galveston District Emergency Management Office. He started his career in 2013 as a Department of the Army Intern for the Regulatory Division, and later transitioned to a full-time employee serving as a Regulatory Specialist for 3 years before accepting his current position in 2018.

Ryan has served as the Galveston District Crisis Action Team Planning Lead during numerous disaster response and recovery operations since 2017 and also serves the nation as an Assistant Team Lead for Emergency Support Function #3 as part of the National Response Framework.

Ryan earned a Bachelor's Degree in Environmental Policy from Bowling Green State University as well as the Federal Law Enforcement Certification from the National Ranger Training Institute at Hocking College.

